Beatles Hit Big Again

NEW YORK — The Beatles are hitting the gold disk route again. Late last week Capitol Records asked the Record Industry Association of America for gold records award certifications on two albums, “Beatles ‘65” and “The Beatles Story” and a single “I Feel Fine.”

“The Beatles Story,” a two-disk LP, was released late November and hit the $1,000,000 sales mark within the first week. “Beatles ‘65” was released a few weeks ago and has already scored over $1,000,000 in sales. The single, “I Feel Fine,” was released Nov. 23 and Capitol reports that 1,000,000 copies were sold immediately thereafter.
