Capitol Rushing 'Beatles VI'

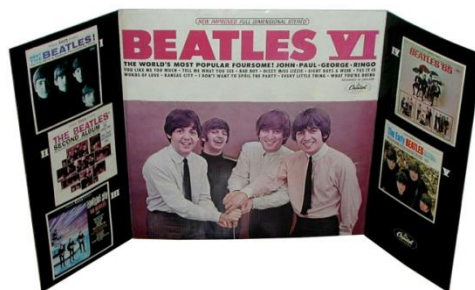

HOLLYWOOD — Capitol Records is rush releasing the album “Beatles VI” in an effort “to stimulate dealer traffic.”

Brown Meggs, Capitol's merchandising vice-president, said the album was created expressly for the American market and features four new songs never available anywhere and four titles never released in the U. S. The remaining three songs have previously been issued.

Capitol will begin taking orders Tuesday with the LP available to dealers later this week. “We hope it will be a strong traffic builder,” Meggs noted. The LP will precede Capitol's release of the group's “Help” soundtrack package.

Possible covers:

Drill-hole punch reading “PROMO.” In this punch, the middle of the “M” is pointed.
Cover without promo stamp and “See label for correct playing order.”

Matte labels.

62-01B (Bert-Co print)

The word “STEREO” is in narrow print with wide horizontal spacing.

Factory: Los Angeles

First pressings have semi-glossy labels.

A few copies exist with narrow spacing on STEREO.

The same is true for the Early Beatles, but the copies of Beatles VI are on a flat label. Most likely they were a later print run that had the narrow stereo by mistake.

Possible covers:

Cover reading “See label for correct playing order.”

Cover showing the correct playing order.

POP SPOTLIGHT

BEATLES VI

Capitol T 2358 (M); ST 2358 (S)

Obvious from the album title, this is the Liverpool group's sixth LP and one to rapidly hit the top of the charts. Perfectly timed for release to coincide with their summer concert tour of the U. S., the package contains their smash hit "Eight Days a Week." The Buddy Holly tune "Words of Love" is heard in a well-done revival as is the Larry Williams hit "Bad Boy."

POP PICKS

BEATLES VI

BEATLES VI—Capitol T/ST 2358

The grand-daddies of the Liverpool Sound, the Beatles have an unprecedented solid gold chain of hit LP's and singles and seem certain to add still another link with their latest Capitol album. For their millions of fans throughout the world, the Mop Tops wail with a powerful assortment of rock tunes, coming mostly from the combined pen of the Lennon-McCartney team. Featured tracks include their latest chart-topper, "Eight Days A Week," as well as "Bad Boy" and "Dizzie Miss Lizzie," from their new movie, "Help!" This one is definite.
