Corrections

Page 76 Change the following:

Something/Come Together (CD Singles)

The correct catalog number is 44314.

Page 83 Change the following:

The Beatles' Second Album (Vinyl 33 Compact)

The NM value for the record and jacket were accidentally shifted down one row.

The description of the orange label singles should read...
In all three cases, stereo pressings (singles 2490-2835) have the word "STEREO" on the label. Only on LA-pressed copies does the word "MONO" appear on the label of mono pressings of singles 5112-2276.

Page 122 Change the following:

The description of the red-label Help! interview LP should indicate that it is one-sided.

Pages 137-8 Change the following:

The 1988 reissues of 1962-1966 and 1967-1970 were on the purple Capitol label with "manufactured" rim print.

Page 138 Change the following:

The Olympia '89 CD was taken from a copy of the LP and is not a legal release. It should be deleted from the Guide.

Rubber Soul (Vinyl LP's)

The last line of the description of item CRC 2442.SR1 (black rainbow label record club issue) should be corrected to read: "The earliest record club covers, CRC 2442.SC1, have "New Improved Full Dimensional Stereo" in black on the back slick, wrapping around to the front cover; there are three black bars at the top left. Later covers, CRC 2442.SC2, used with all green-label copies and most black-label copies, have the STEREO banner in color on the front slick."

Page 192 Change the following:

The Rock 'n' Roll radio spots compact 33 is known to be a fantasy item and not a legal release. It should be deleted from the Guide.

Page 206 Change the following:

Two Virgins (Vinyl LP's)

Beatles Price Guide for American Records Sixth Edition

The NM value for the Bestway LP and cover should be $250.

Page 220 Change the following:

It is now known that at least 11 copies of the withdrawn "Put it There" promotional 45 exist.

Correct the Driving Rain catalog number to 35510.

Page 252 Change the following:

Correct the time of the "Sun City" 12" single to 9:37. Also, a clear, rectangular sticker exists, reading "Extended Dance Mix." Add $2 for the sticker.

Page 270 Note the following:

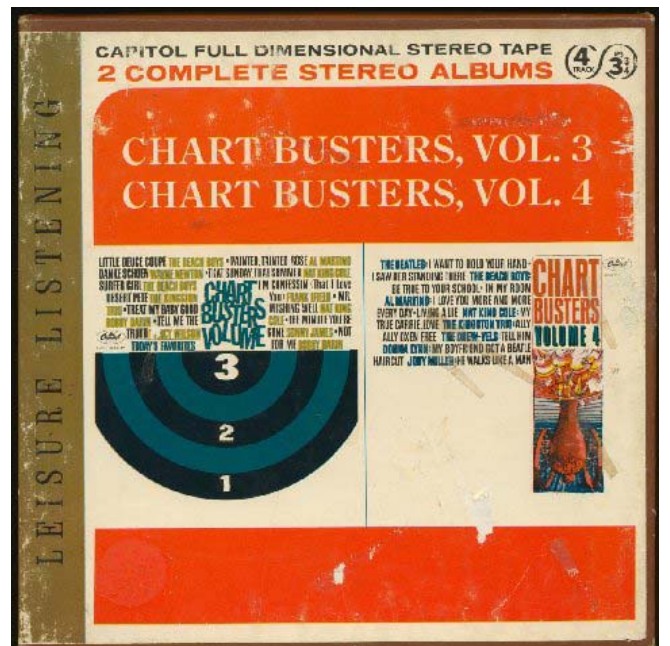

For Apple singles numbered from 1822 to 1831, unless otherwise noted the values for copies having "Mfd. by Apple" on the full side are the same as the values for copies having "Mfd. by Apple" on the sliced side. These singles came out during the period when Capitol (Apple) was in the process of "switching sides."

Page 287 Change the following:

At the bottom left corner is a note by the publisher wondering if a higher-resolution image of a disc label could be found. Please ignore this note.

Page 301 Change the following:

The FGG disc actually contains George's quotation from "Sorrow" that is found in the Beatles' song "It's All Too Much."
