

"Golden Slumbers/Carry That Weight"/"Trash Can" Trash

First appearance in trade magazines: October 25, 1969

Label as1

Apple

1811

Apple label "MFD. BY APPLE" on the sliced side.

The songs on the A-side are separated with an "and."

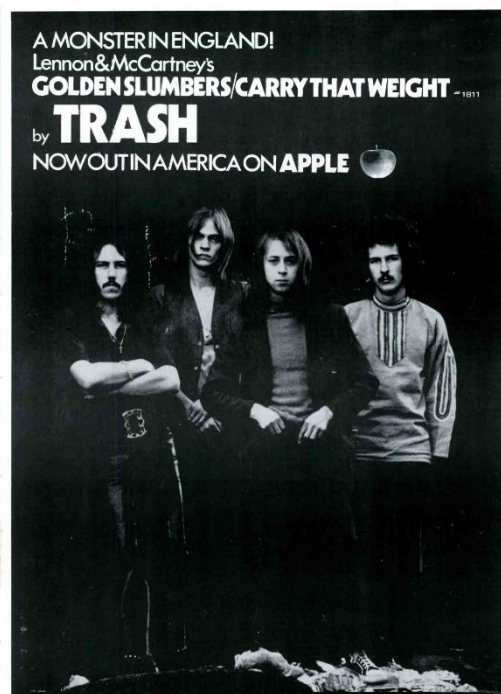

Factories: Scranton

Factories: Los Angeles

TRASH (Apple 1811)
Golden Slumbers/Carry That Weight (3:59) (MacLen, BMI — Lennon, McCartney) Medley version of two tracks from the "Abbey Road" album are ample evidence that Trash is still moving toward US recognition. Flip: "Trash Can" (4:50) (Saoirse Apple, ASCAP — Trash, Tennent)

TRASH ^{★★★★} Apple 1811.
GOLDEN SLUMBERS/CARRY THAT WEIGHT (MacLen, BMI)
TRASH (Apple, ASCAP)
This is a beautiful medley of two Lennon-McCartney tunes from the Beatles' "Abbey Road." A hit for Trash!

Label as2

Apple

1811

Apple label "MFD. BY APPLE" on the sliced side.

The songs on the A-side are separated with a blank line.

Factories: Scranton

The B-side graphics are the same as Label as1L.

Label as3

Apple

1811

Apple label "MFD. BY APPLE" on the sliced side.

The songs on the A-side are separated with a slash.

Factories: Scranton, Los Angeles

The B-side graphics are the same as Label as1L.

Observe that the reviews in Cash Box and Record World use a slash between "Golden Slumbers" and "Carry That Weight." Likewise, the ad that Apple placed in Cash Box also uses a slash.

