The industry magazines reviewed the magazine in early-to-mid October, with the write-ups being generally positive. Coming out just after the group's performance at Carnegie Hall, the single did better this time than Brother 1015 had performed in May. This time it made the Top 100 for both Cash Box (#79) and Billboard (#89).

LONG PROMISED HIT:

"LONG PROMISED ROAD"

SEP 1967

THE BEACH BOYS

It's the inevitable single from their brilliant Surf's Up album (RS 6453). "Long Promised Road," the single, and Surf's Up, the album (an Ampex-distributed tape), shine like gold on Brother Reprise.

BEACH BOYS—LONG PROMISED ROAD (3:29)

(Prods: Beach Boys) (Writers: Wilson-Rieley) (Wilejersten, ASCAP)—From their hit LP, "Surf's Up," comes a potent driving rock ballad that will prove the one to put the group back on top once again. Super production work. Flip: (No Information Available). Reprise 1047
