Label 01L(i) has the song title lines on side A mis-aligned over the author credit.

Label 01L(ii) has the song title properly aligned. The D in the top line overhangs the N in the line below it.

Label 01L(iii) has the song title properly aligned. The D in the top line is to the right of the N in the line below it. The spacing – away from one another – of the blocks of text is also different than on 01L(ii). The B-side text is farther from the spindle hole than on 01L(ii).

DANCE, DANCE, DANCE (2:00) [Sea Of Tunes BMI — Wilson]	THE WARMTH OF THE SUN (2:17) [Sea Of Tunes BMI—Wilson, Love]
BEACH BOYS (Capitol 5306)
The Beach Boys' amazing smash string should soon see the addition of this two-sided follow-up to "When I Grow Up To Be A Man." Leadoff portion's another of their sensational hot-rod-surfin' rockers, this one tabbed "Dance, Dance, Dance," that zips along with money-makin' glee. Companion piece, "The Warmth Of The Sun," is an ultra-lovely, lazy paced ballad that the boys deliver in oh-so-smooth, ear-arresting fashion. Looks like a big double-header.

The record first appeared in Billboard in the issue dated November 7, 1964. It moved up steadily into the Top Ten before peaking at #8 and dropping out. Cash Box disagreed only slightly, allowing the record to push to #10 before sales dropped off.

Picture Sleeve

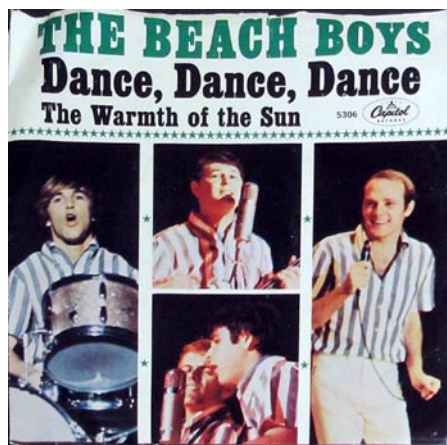

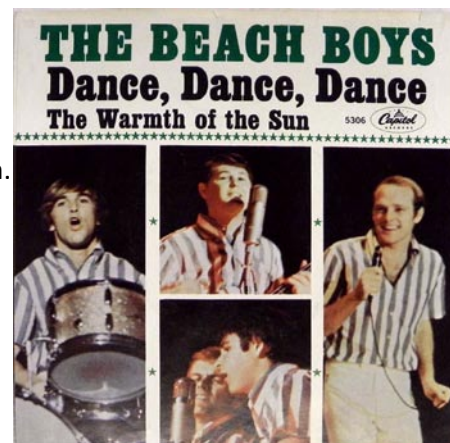

PS1A(east coast):

The sleeve has a wavy top on the open side. The colors are in a shade of green. PS1A has the side with 4 photos as the open side of the sleeve.

PS1B (west coast):

The sleeve is tab cut. The colors are in a shade of green, although on some copies the dull green appears bluish.

The single group photo appears on the tabbed side of the sleeve.
