A well-of-sound production characterizes this single from the album "The Beach Boys Love You." The vocals and darkly colored instruments are blended into one thick soup, but the warm summer feelings come through. Deja vu of "Do It Again" in the intro drum riff; was Brian looking into the future back then?

THE BEACH BOYS—Brother/Reprise 1389
HONKIN' DOWN THE HIGHWAY (prod. by Brian Wilson) (writer: Brian Wilson) (Brother, BMI) (2:31)

The undisputed masters of the summer song could well hit again with this rock-ribbed driving song. Brian is back, and the group should soar.
