The single, "Surfer Girl"/"Little Deuce Coupe" (Capitol 5009) was a hot one, and Capitol promoted the associated album as being part of both a surfing and "motor" (drag racing) trend. With radio stations playing several album tracks, the album leapt into the Top Ten on both major charts, peaking at Billboard's #7 spot.

POP SPOTLIGHT
SURFER GIRL
 Beach Boys. Capitol T 1981
 (M); ST 1981 (S)

The Beach Boys have maintained their hit pace of late with a slick, two-sided hit in "Little Deuce Coupe" and "Surfer Girl." Both are included here plus a flock of new sides, many of which have strong hit single potential as well. Titles include "South Bay Surfer," "The Rocking Surfer," "Our Car Club" and "Boogie Woodie." Slick wax that can go.

"SURFER GIRL" — The Beach Boys — Capitol ST1981

The Beach Boys, still riding the charts with their first two Capitol sets ("Surfin' Safari" & "Surfin' U.S.A."), unleash their vocal-instrumental talents on this third stanza tagged after their current hit, "Surfer Girl." This package should follow its forerunners to chartsville in short order with top-notch readings of "Little Deuce Coupe," "South Bay Surfer" and "Boogie Woodie."

Possible Covers:

Commercial back cover (MC1) mentioning "Little Deuce Coupe"

Commercial back cover (MC2) mentioning "Your Summer Dream"

Green rectangular sticker on either of the above covers, mentioning "In My Room."

Commercial cover with promotional sticker on the back liner (Scranton)

Commercial cover with promotional stamping on the back liner (LA)

And for the old friends of the Beach Boys there's plenty of that good old surfin' beat too, featured in their other new single-record hit, "Little Deuce Coupe."

And for the old friends of the Beach Boys there's plenty of that good old surfin' beat too, plus their wonderful tribute to the Four Freshmen, sung in their style, "Your Summer Dream."
