Shortly after Reprise released the first Beach Boys single on that label, Capitol put out this collection of songs from various points in their time with Capitol. The album sold well enough to earn a second pressing, but by 1972 it had been removed from the catalog.

POP
BEACH BOYS—
Good Vibrations.
Capitol ST-442 (S)
Truly a "greatest hits" collection, this LP covers an enviable time period of Beach Boys prosperity, from "I Get Around" and "Barbara Ann" to "I Can Hear Music" and the classic "Good Vibrations," from the simple harmonies of the surfing sound to the intricate complexities now the rage in pop music. Sure to be a collector's item.
