Capitol T-828

The Five Keys

Released March, 1957.

Cover #1 shows the left-most singer's hand sticking out in front of his suit.

On cover #2 the hand has been airbrushed out.

The cover was not withdrawn, and the second cover is scarcer. Promotional copies exist with each cover, and all three EP's exist with each cover. Most likely Capitol made the change during the initial printing of covers, so that both may have been available in shops on the issue date.
