

Flamingo Favorites

The Flamingos

Released: Spring 1960

Including "Besame Mucho" (from February 1960), only two of the songs had been singles sides. The rest were new to this LP, although all of side one wound up on singles within a year.

The album was reportedly issued in stereo, but no stereo copies have appeared for sale.

Label 58

End

Gray label with "dog" logo. No print at the bottom of the label

End LP-307

LP-307

All of the labels have RPM in a typeface in which the M has slanted sides, as M.

On some copies (58Bi), the number preceding "Besame Mucho" is over the middle of the V in Valsquez. In other copies (58Bii), the number is over the left side of the V.

Label 58e

End

Gray label with "dog" logo. "A Product of End Music, Inc" appears at the bottom.

LP-307

At the end of June 1962, Roulette Records president, Morris Levy, announced that his company had purchased Gone/End. By this time, End had released 15 LPs, numbered 301 through 315. After the merger, End released only one more album, with Roulette continuing to reissue the existing End catalog.

Label 58r

End

LP-307

Gray label with "dog" logo. "A Division of Roulette Records, Inc." appears at the bottom.

This label style was used from July 1962 until approximately summer 1964.

Copies 58r(i) END 307 in a much narrower typeface than any of the others, and the artist name is in much larger print.

Copies 58r(ii) to 58r(iii) have the words at the bottom of the label in a narrow typeface.

Copies 58r(ii) have the artist name under the title.

Copies 58r(iii) show only the title.

Copies 58r(iv) have the Roulette print in a wider typeface.

The album remained out of print from 1964 to 1992, when Collectables records reissued it in the cassette and compact-disc formats.