Neil Young with Crazy Horse — Reprise 6349

The second album by Neil Young since he left the Buffalo Springfield, this set finds the singer/composer back on the right track. With the aid of Crazy Horse, his new backup group, Young runs through seven of his own compositions, and the result should please old fans and win new ones. Of special interest is the overnine-minute "Down By The River," but all the songs sit well, including "Round & Round (It Won't Be Long)" and "Cowgirl In The Sand."

NEIL YOUNG WITH CRAZY HORSE— Reprise RS 6349.

Neil Young is joined by Danny Whitten, Ralph Molina and Billy Talto this second Reprise package. The sound is very much Young's brand of country-rock, especially on long cuts "Down by the River" and "Cowgirl in the Sand."

The RIAA awarded a Gold Record to the album in late November 1970, as reported in the issue of Billboard dated December 5th.

THE AD YOU SEE BELOW

Is Being Run by Neil Young's Record Company in Every Underground and Pop Music Paper in America. Repeatedly. At a Staggering Cost.

We Choose to Stagger Only When We've Got Good Product:

- A new Neil Young album (Reprise 6349) that's broken out wildly in Los Angeles, New York, Phoenix, Cleveland, and San Francisco. So far.
- An artist (ex-Buffalo Springfield) who's about to change Crosby, Stills & Nash into Crosby, Stills,
- A single titled "Down by the River" that's been forced out of the album by some crusading disc jockeys. (Reprise 0836).
