McCartney Single Culled From LP

HOLLYWOOD — Paul McCartney and Wings released a new single from their forthcoming Capitol "Venus and Mars" LP last Friday (16). The single, "Listen to What the Man Said," was released around the world simultaneously. Written and produced by McCartney, it is his first release from the new album.

"Listen to What the Man Said" will be backed by "Love in Song," another track from the album.

WINGS—Listen To What The Man Said (3:53); producer: Paul McCartney; writer: McCartney; publishers: McCartney/ATV, BMI. Capitol 4091. Already on the Hot 100 at a starred 65, the long awaited McCartney and company single is his typical perfect mix of quality and commerciality. Mid-tempo style with interesting sax shirring in and out and taking a strong solo at one point. Should be strong MOR as well as instant AM pop hit.

Listen To What The Man Said (3:53) (McCartney/ATV/BMI McCartney)
From the forthcoming "Venus And Mars" album, Paul McCartney and his group take flight with this shuffle-paced single. Clarinets spice the song and give it a distinct flavor while McCartney's supple vocal style will make this an automatic addition to almost anyone's play list. Flip: No info. available.
