This LP will create an interesting situation in radio: there's no way in the world Top 40 stations and easy listening stations can claim it—it's pure country. Yet, the stature of Ringo Starr demands airplay. Most interesting cuts include "Love Don't Last Long," "Sis Draw," "Fastest Growing Heartache in the West," and "Silent Homecoming." Stocking this LP is a guarantee of giant sales.

Second Starr LP Markets This Week

NEW YORK—Ringo Starr's second album, "Beaucoups of Blues," will be released via Apple Records on Sept. 28. Starr's LP was recorded in Nashville as a follow-up to his best-seller LP "Sentimental Journey."

BEAUCOUPS OF BLUES — Ringo Starr — Apple SMAS 3368

Although Ringo made a rather inauspicious solo LP debut in "Sentimental Journey," he bounces back second time round with a happy easy going album of country music. Much of the 'good vibes' atmosphere credit must go to those backing Ringo like Charlie McCoy, the Jordanaires (they used to back Elvis), Sorrells Pickard and a host of others who lend their considerable talents to making the set sound authentic. Happily Ringo sounds right at home singing Chuck Howard's "I Wouldn't Have It Any Other Way," Buzz Rabin's title track, and Sorrells Pickard's "Without Her," among others. No Starr-penned tracks here but none are really needed. A solid, well produced set.

Ringo Starr, who is coming to work even if his three friends aren't, has a Nashville album, featuring picking by some Music City greats (Apple SMAS 3368).
